

Final Comments

I lost the last sentence of the FP

- Insert M
a-b
1. The first sentence of paragraph X.e. (1), page 4, ~~is unduly pessimistic~~ <sup>old war</sup> and leads to the conclusion that any U.S. strategy is useless. Recommend deletion of the paragraph.
2. The concept described in paragraph X.e. (5), page 4, is implicit in any U.S. <sup>cold war</sup> strategy and as such is redundant. Recommend deletion.
- Insert
14 2
3. In view of the number of deletions and revisions in Part II Section II of the CIA/ops Strategic Plan, <sup>August</sup> of 1951 contemplated by paragraph 1. f. <sup>(page 5)</sup> of the new plan, it might be desirable to list the new assumptions as a complete revision under the heading "Other Assumptions" without reference to specific deletions in the individual paragraphs of the earlier plan.
4. ~~PSB D-21~~ The approved version of PSB D-31 is dated 26 November 1952 and paragraph 2. a., page 6, should be corrected accordingly.
5. The first two ~~phases~~ clauses of the first sentence of Mission A, page 7, appear contradictory.
6. One of ~~our~~ <sup>our</sup> missions should be to recapture the satellite periphery from any form of U.S.S.R. control. Deletion of "political-military" in the heading of Mission D <sup>page 8</sup> is recommended.
7. Recommend clearer statement of <sup>the last two sentences of</sup> paragraph 3 b., page 10, somewhat as follows:
"However, many of these statements must be framed within established U.S. policies such as:"
- Insert
Econ
3a 2
specifically what papers & where
8. In paragraph 3. b. (3) recommend substitution of "strategic interests of the U.S." for "circumstances of the situation". (page 11)
- Insert
14 3
- ~~Quest. definitions of Propaganda and Political changes contained in Plan.~~